LINES IN DEADLOCK

Question of Reduced Convention Rates Is Causing Much Trouble.

PENNSYLVANIA IS OPPOSED

Chicago, March 28.—Central Passenger Association lines are still in a deadlock on the question of reduced rates for conventions and various other meetings, including those of the Grand Army of the Republic at Toledo and the National Educational Association at Toledo. The proposition requires a two-thirds vote which so far has been impossible to gain in its favor. The Pennsylvania is opposed to granting the same rates in effect prior to the enactment of two-cent fare laws. The Grand Army veterans may therefore fail in their effort to get a rate of one cent a mile, which they have had for many years.

AMERICAN BANKERS MEET NEXT MAY

Sessions Will Be Held in Lakewood, New Jersey.

New York, March 28.—The advisory committee of the American Bankers' association has selected Lakewood, N. J., as the place for holding the spring meeting of the council. The meeting will last two days, May 5th and 6th, and also May 7th, if necessary. On Monday, May 4th, the general committees of the association and the committees of the various sections will meet. The sections are expected to report to the council at this meeting.

BRITISH SYNDICATE WANTS DIAMOND FIELD

Rich One Discovered in State Of Guerrero.

Mexico City, March 28.—A diamond field has been discovered in the State of Guerrero for which an offer of $100,000 made by a British syndicate interested in South African mines, was refused. It is asserted that the gems of value have been taken from the new discovery and that the formation is identical with that of the South African fields.

THEATER MUSICIANS DESIRE HIGHER SCALE

Managers Look Upon Demand As Prohibitive.

New York, March 28.—The Musical Mutual Protective union of this city has notified the theatrical managers' association of Greater New York that a substantial raise in scale will be demanded at the beginning of the next theatrical year. The managers are said to look upon the demand as prohibitive, and consideration of the alien contract labor law has been a feature of their meetings. Every manager throughout the city except one, is a member of the association. The union has a membership of upward of 5,000.

ORIENTAL FRUIT BATS.

They Descend Upon Orchards With Devastating Fury.

The big oriental fruit bats, or flying foxes, so familiar in India, Ceylon and the Malayan region, feed on all sorts of soft fruits except acid ones, such as oranges; are especially fond of figs and guavas and are a destructive pest to orchards and gardens. In some parts of Java, for example, no delicate fruit can be raised except by protecting the trees with nets and fighting off the nightly forays of bands of kalangs.

They live and travel in vast companies, roosting by day on chosen trees, where they hang by one hind leg, each protected from the sun's glare and from rain in the closely wrapped mantle of its wings, and large branches frequently break under the weight. At sunset they fly away to their feeding grounds, scattering over a wide area.

Where a fig tree or banana thicket attracts a crowd of the roughest fighting begins over coveted plunder, each one screaming, clawing, biting and struggling to seize something and get away to a secure retreat to enjoy it. There he hangs by one foot, and grasping the fruit he has secured in the claws and opposable thumb of the other, he hastily reduces it to lumps, with which he stuffs his cheek pouches until they become distended like those of a monkey. Later he chews and swallows this food at leisure.

At dawn all return to their roosts and, says Tickell, "hook themselves along the branches, scrambling about hand over hand with some speed, biting each other severely, striking out with the long claws of the thumb, shrieking and cackling without intermission."

No doubt these squabbles are rendered more violent by the disgracefully dissipated habits in which the bats indulge during their nocturnal expeditions, for, according to Francis Day and other observers, "they often pass the night drinking the toddy from the chattries in the cocoanut trees, which results either in their returning home in the early morning in a state of extreme and riotous intoxication or in being found the next day at the foot of the trees, sleeping off the effects of their midnight debauch."—Ernest Ingersoll's "Life of Mammals."

TO ARRANGE TREATY

New Tariff Arrangement Is to Be Made Between France And United States.

WILEY WILL NOT GO.

Washington, March 28.—Recent developments here make it probable that the commission which is to go to Europe to negotiate the new tariff treaty with France will not include Dr. W. H. Wiley, of the bureau of chemistry. It is expected that instead of Dr. Wiley there will be appointed some one who will represent the bureau of animal industry rather than the bureau of chemistry. It is understood that the delegate has been selected but the name is not made public. Assistant Secretary Reynolds of the treasury department will be a second member. The third has not been positively chosen, according to last accounts, although it is reliably reported that the appointment has been offered to Chief North of the census bureau.

TELEGRAPH LINES ACROSS THE DESERT

French Possessions to Be Connected.

Paris, March 28.—The first step towards the realization of the long cherished scheme of connecting the French possessions in the north of Africa, with those on the west coast and in the center of the continent will shortly be effected. It is proposed to establish the telegraph across the desert and the railway may follow quickly.

Among the Hottentots the women hold a better position than they do anywhere else in Africa. "The married woman," says one traveler, "reigns supreme mistress. Her husband cannot without her permission take a bite of meat or a drop of milk. Generally they rank much above the average of the negro races."—London Globe.
